٣٨٧٦- حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ: حَدَّثَنَا عُمَرُ بْنُ ذَرٍّ عَنِ الْعَيْزَارِ بْنِ جَرْوَلٍ الْحَضْرَمِيِّ، عَنْ رَجُلٍ مِنْهُمْ يُكْنَى أَبَا عُمَيْرٍ، أَنَّهُ كَانَ صَدِيقًا لِعَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ، وَأَنَّ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ مَسْعُودٍ زَارَهُ فِي

'Abdullah bin Mas'ood visited him at home but did not find him. So he asked permission from his wife to enter and he asked for a drink. She sent the slave girl to bring him a drink from their neighbours, but she was slow and she cursed her, so 'Abdullah left. Abu 'Umair came and said: O Abu 'Abdur-Rahman, one would not feel protective jealousy concerning someone like you. Why did you not greet the wife of your brother and sit down and have something to drink? He said: I did that, and she sent the servant and she was slow; either they did not have anything or they had something but did not want to give it. She thought the servant was too slow and she cursed her, but I heard the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) say: "If a curse is directed at someone, if it finds a way to reach him it will stay, otherwise it will say: 'O Lord, I was sent to So and so, but I could not find any way to reach him.' Then it is said to it: 'Go back from whence you came.'" And I was afraid that the servant had an excuse and that the curse would come back, and I would be the cause of it.

3885. It was narrated that 'Abdullah (﵁) said: I used to greet the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) when he was praying and he would return my greeting. One day I greeted him [when he was praying] but he did not return the greeting and I felt sad. When he had finished praying I said: O Messenger of Allah, I used to greet you when you were praying and you would return the greeting. He said: "Allah introduces whatever He wants into His matter [i.e., religion]."

Then they went to him and said: We will not engage in mula'anah with you; rather we will give you what you asked for. Send with us a trustworthy man. And the Prophet (ﷺ) said: "I shall certainly send a trustworthy man; he is indeed trustworthy, he is indeed trustworthy." All the Companions of Muhammad (ﷺ) hoped to be the one, then he said: "Get up, O Abu 'Ubaidah bin al-Jarrah." When he left with them, he (the Prophet (ﷺ)) said: "This is the trustee of this ummah."

3936. It was narrated from 'Abdullah that he said: Whoever would like to meet Allah, may He be exalted, tomorrow as a Muslim, let him regularly offer these prayers where the call to prayer is given, for Allah has prescribed the ways of guidance to your Prophet (ﷺ) and they (the prayers) are among the ways of guidance. If you pray in your houses like this one who stays away from the mosque prays in his house, you will have forsaken the Sunnah of your Prophet, and if you forsake the Sunnah of your Prophet you will go astray. There is no man who purifies himself and purifies himself well, then he goes to one of these mosques, but Allah will record one good deed for him for every step he takes, and will raise him in status one degree thereby, and will erase one bad deed thereby. I remember when no one would stay away from it but a hypocrite whose hypocrisy was known, and a man would come staggering between two others in order to stand in the row.

3951. It was narrated from Abu 'Ubaidah bin 'Abdullah bin Mas'ood, 'Affan said: that his father Ibn Mas'ood said: Verily Allah sent His Prophet (ﷺ) to be the cause of a man entering Paradise. He entered the synagogue and saw some Jews, and a Jew was reading the Torah to them. When they came to a description of the Prophet (ﷺ), they stopped reading. There was a sick man in the gathering, and the Prophet (ﷺ) said: "Why did you stop reading?" The sick man said: They came to a description of a Prophet, so they stopped reading. Then the sick man came crawling, until he took the Torah and read until he came to the description of the Prophet (ﷺ) and his ummah. And he said: This is a description of you and your ummah; I bear witness that there is no god but Allah and that you are the Messenger of Allah. Then he died, and the Prophet (ﷺ) said to his companions: "Take care of your brother."

3961. It was narrated that Ibn Sakhbarah said: I went out in the morning with 'Abdullah bin Mas'ood from Mina to 'Arafat, and he was reciting the Talbiyah. 'Abdullah was a dark man with two braids, and he had the look of the people of the desert. Some thugs gathered around him and said: O Bedouin, this is not a day for Talbiyah; rather it is a day for takbeer! At that, he turned to me and said: Are the people ignorant or have they forgotten? By the One Who sent Muhammad (ﷺ) with the truth, I went out with the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) and he did not stop reciting the Talbiyah until he stoned Jamratal-'Aqabah, except that sometimes he mixed it with takbeer or tahleel.

3962. It was narrated that 'Abdullah (ﷺ) said: I never saw the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) pray against Quraish except on one day. He was praying and a group of Quraish were sitting (nearby), and there was the placenta of a she-camel near him. They said:

٣٩٦٢- حَدَّثَنَا وَهْبُ بْنُ جَرِيرٍ: حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ مَيْمُونٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ: مَا رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ دَعَا عَلَى قُرَيْشٍ غَيْرَ يَوْمٍ وَاحِدٍ، فَإِنَّهُ كَانَ يُصَلِّي، وَرَهْطٌ مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ جُلُوسٌ، وَسَلَا جَزُورٍ قَرِيبٌ

Who will take this placenta and throw it onto his back? 'Uqbah bin Abi Mu'ait said: I will. He took it and threw it onto his back, and he remained prostrating until Fatimah came and took it from his back. Then the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: "O Allah, I urge You to deal with this group of Quraish. O Allah, I urge You to deal with 'Utbah bin Rabee'ah, O Allah, I urge You to deal with Shaibah bin Rabee'ah, O Allah, I urge You to deal with Abu Jahl bin Hisham, O Allah, I urge You to deal with 'Uqbah bin Abi Mu'ait, O Allah, I urge You to deal with Ubayy bin Khalaf, or Umayyah bin Khalaf." 'Abdullah said: I saw them all slain on the day of Badr, then they were dragged to the dry well, except Ubayy or Umayyah; he was a huge man and he began to disintegrate.

3977. It was narrated that Abul-Majid said: A man came to 'Abdullah and he mentioned this story and started narrating from the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ). He said: The first man whose hand was cut off in Islam - or among the Muslims - was a man who was brought to the Prophet (ﷺ) and it was said: O Messenger of Allah, this man has stolen. And it was as if the face of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) was covered with dust (i.e., his face changed colour). Some of them said: O Messenger of Allah, what's wrong? He said: "How can I not be upset when you are the Shaitan's helpers against your companion? Allah is forgiving and loves forgiveness; no case should be brought to the ruler but he should carry out the hadd punishment." Then he recited: "Let them pardon and forgive. Do you not love that Allah should forgive you? And Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful" [an-Noor 24:22].

3978. It was narrated that 'Abdullah bin Mas'ood (ؓ) said: We asked our Prophet (ﷺ) about walking with the bier and he said: "A rapid walk, for if he (the deceased) was good, he will be hastened (to something good), and if he was otherwise, then away with the people of Hell. The bier should be followed rather than follow; he is not one of us who walks ahead of it."

3981. It was narrated that 'Abdullah bin Mas'ood said: The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) taught me a soorah of ath-thalatheen, one of the family of Ha-Meem, i.e., al-Ahqaf. If a soorah contained more than thirty verses, it was called ath-thalatheen (thirty). So I went to the mosque in the morning and I saw a man reciting it in a way different from the way he had taught me. I said: Who taught you it? He said: The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ). I said to another man: Recite it. And he recited it in a way that was different from my recitation and that of my companion. I took them to the Prophet (ﷺ) and said: O Messenger of Allah, these two recite differently from me. He got angry and it could be seen from his face that he was upset, and he said: "Those who came before you were destroyed because of differences." Zirr said: There was a man with him and the man said: The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) is instructing you each to recite as he was taught; those who came before you were only destroyed because of differences. 'Abdullah said: I do not know whether it was something that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) had told him privately or if he sensed what the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) wanted to tell people.

to him: Who taught it to you? He said: The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ). So he and I went, with a group of people, and I said: O Messenger of Allah, did you not teach me such and such a verse? He said: "Yes indeed." I said: This man claims that you taught it to him in such and such a way. The face of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) changed, and the man who was with him said: Let each man among you recite it as he heard it, for those who came before you were only destroyed because of differences. By Allah I do not know whether the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) told him to say that or he said it by himself.

Comments: [This hadeeth was narrated in the Maimaniyyah edition and in the edition of Shaikh Ahmad Shakir and other editions, but in fact the hadeeth is a mixture composed of the isnad of the following hadeeth (4041) and the text of the previous hadeeth]

4041. It was narrated that Shaqeeq said: We were sitting at the door of 'Abdullah, waiting for him to give permission for us to enter. Then Yazeed bin Mu'awiyah an-Nakha'i came and entered upon him and we said to him: Tell him that we are here. He went in and told him, and soon he came out to us and said: I know you are here, but I left you deliberately for fear of boring you. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) used to choose the right time to exhort us for fear of boring us.

prevented from three things - Ibn 'Awn said: 'Amr forgot one and I forgot another, but this remains - from private conversation, from such and such, and from such and such. I came to him and Malik bin Murarah ar-Rahawi was with him. I caught the end of what he was saying, which was: O Messenger of Allah, I am a man who has been given a (fair) share of beauty as you can see, and I do not like any one among the people to be better than me in the straps of his sandals or anything more than that; is that not wrongdoing? He said: "That is not wrongdoing; rather wrongdoing is rejecting the truth and looking down at people."

Comments: [Its isnad is saheeh if it is proven that Humaid bin 'Abdur-Rahman - who is al-Himyari - heard from Ibn Mas'ood]

4059. It was narrated that 'Abdullah said: Mention was made to the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) of a man who slept all night until morning came. He said: "That is a man in whose ear - or ears - the Shaitan urinated."

4061. It was narrated from Muhammad bin 'Abdur-Rahman bin Yazeed, from his father, who said: I was with 'Abdullah until he came to Jamratal-'Aqabah, and he said: Give me some stones. I gave him seven stones and he said to me: Take hold of the camel's reins. Then he went back to it and stoned it from the bottom of the valley with seven stones, whilst riding, and saying takbeer with every throw. And he said: O Allah, make it an accepted Hajj and a forgiven sin. Then he said: Here is where the one to whom Sooratal-Baqarah was revealed used to stand.

Comments: [Saheeh apart from the words "O Allah, make it an accepted Hajj and a forgiven sin"; this has a da'eef isnad because of the weakness of Laith]

4073. It was narrated from Huzail bin Shurahbeel that al-Ash'ari was asked about a daughter, a son's daughter, a sister through the father and mother (full sister) [i.e., a case of inheritance]. He allocated half to the daughter and the rest to the sister, and he did not allocate anything to the son's daughter. They went to Ibn Mas'ood and told him (about that) and he said: I would go astray, and I would not be one of the rightly guided (cf. 6:45) if I accepted his verdict and ignored the verdict of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ). Then Ibn Mas'ood said: The daughter gets one half, the son's daughter gets one sixth and what is left goes to the sister.

4129. It was narrated that 'Abdullah said: May Allah curse the women who do tattoos and the women who have tattoos done, the women who pluck facial hair, the women who file teeth for the purpose of beautification, who change the creation of Allah. News of that reached a woman in the house who was called Umm Ya'qoob. She came to him and said: I heard that you said such and such. He said: What should I not curse those whom the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) cursed in the Book of Allah? She said: I have read what is between the covers (of the Mushaf) and I did not find it. He said: If you had read it, you would have found it. Have you not read (the words) "And whatsoever the Messenger (Muhammad (ﷺ)) gives you, take it; and whatsoever he forbids you, abstain (from it)" [al-Hashr 59:7]? She said: Yes indeed. He said: The Prophet (ﷺ) forbade that. She said: I think your family do that. He said: Go and look. So she looked, but she did not see anything, so she came and said: I did not see anything. He was reclining, but he sat up and said: The Hour will not begin until shares of inheritance are not distributed and there is no rejoicing over war booty. An enemy will gather against the people of Islam and the people of Islam will gather against them. Then he gestured with his hand like this in the direction of Syria. I said: Do you mean the Byzantines? He said: Yes. He said: During this fighting there will be a great retreat. The Muslims will send out a detachment to fight to the death and not return unless they are victorious. They will fight until night intervenes, then both sides will go back, neither having prevailed, and that detachment will have been wiped out. unless they are victorious. They will fight until night intervenes, then both sides will go back, neither having prevailed, and that detachment will have been wiped out. Then the Muslims will send out a detachment to fight to the death and not return unless they are victorious. They will fight until evening comes, then both sides will go back, neither having prevailed, and that detachment will have been wiped out. Then on the fourth day, the rest of the Muslims will charge at them (the enemy), and Allah will decree that the enemy be routed, and they will fight a battle the like of which has never been seen. If a bird were to fly over their flanks, it would not reach the end of them before falling down dead. The sons of one father, who numbered one hundred, will check to see how many are left, and they will find only one man is left, so what joy can there be in war booty, and what inheritance can be shared out? Whilst they are like that, they will hear of an even greater calamity. The cry will reach them: The Dajjal has taken your place among your offspring. So they will throw aside whatever is in their hands and will go there, sending ten horsemen ahead of them as scouts. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: "I know their names, and the names of their fathers, and the colours of their horses. They will be the best horsemen on the face of the earth at that time."

4340. It was narrated that Ibn Mas'ood said: The Prophet (ﷺ) entered the mosque (walking) between Abu Bakr and 'Umar, and saw Ibn Mas'ood praying. He was reciting (Soorat) an-Nisa' and stopped when he completed one hundred verses, then Ibn Mas'ood started to offer supplication whilst standing in prayer. And the Prophet (ﷺ) said: "Ask you will be given, ask you will be given." Then he said: "Whoever would like to recite the Qur'an fresh as it was revealed, let him recite it according to the recitation of Ibn Umm 'Abd." The next morning, Abu Bakr came to him to tell him the good news and he said to him: What did you ask Allah for yesterday? He said: I said: O Allah, I ask You for faith that will never change, blessing that will never expire and to accompany Your Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) in the highest part of the Paradise of eternity. Then 'Umar (﵁) came to 'Abdullah (to tell him the good news), but it was said to him: Abu Bakr has beaten you to it, so he said: May Allah have mercy on Abu Bakr; I never competed with him in doing good but he beat me to it.

It was narrated that Abu Wa'il said: 'Abdullah said: 'Umar bin al-Khattab (ؓ) surpassed the people in four matters: with regard to the issue of the captives on the day of Badr, when he said that they should be executed, and Allah revealed the words, "Were it not a previous ordainment from Allah, a severe torment would have touched you for what you took" [al-Anfal 8:68]; with regard to hijab, when he told the wives of the Prophet (ﷺ) to observe hijab and Zainab said to him, Do you want to tell us what to do, O son of al-Khattab, when Revelation comes down in our houses? Then Allah revealed the words, "And when you ask (his wives) for anything you want, ask them from behind a screen" [al-Ahzab 33:53]; when the Prophet (ﷺ) prayed for him by saying, "O Allah, support Islam with 'Umar"; and when he nominated Abu Bakr (as caliph) and was the first one to swear allegiance to him.

Musnad of Abdullah bin Mas'ood ؓ 7

Musnad of 'Abdullah ibn 'Umar (ؓ) 43

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم

مُسْنَدُ عَبْدِ اللهِ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ ؓ

Musnad of Abdullah bin Mas'ood ؓ

4377. It was narrated that 'Abdullah ibn Mas'ood said: (The soorah) "By the winds (or angels or the Messengers of Allah) sent forth one after another" [al-Mursalaat 77:1] was revealed to the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) on the night of the snake. He (the narrator) said: We said to him: What was the night of the snake, O Abu 'Abd ar-Rahmaan? He said: Whilst we were with the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) in Hira' one night, a snake came out towards us from the mountain. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) told us to kill it, so we chased it but it got away from us. So he said: "Let it be; Allah protected it from your evil just as He protected you from its evil."

4378. It was narrated that 'Abd ar-Rahmaan ibn Yazeed said: I stood with 'Abdullah ibn Mas'ood in front of the Jamrah, and when he stood in front of it he said: This - by the One besides Whom there is no other god - is the place where the one to whom Soorat al-Baqarah was revealed stood on the day he stoned it. Then 'Abdullah ibn Mas'ood stoned it with seven pebbles, ٤٣٧٧ حَدَّثَنَا يَعْقُوبُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي عَنِ ابْنِ إِسْحَاقَ، قَالَ: وَحَدَّثَنِي عَبْدُالرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ الْأَسْوَدِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ النَّخَعِيُّ عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ: نَزَلَتْ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ: ﴿وَٱلْمُرْسَلَٰتِ عُرْفًا﴾ (المرسلات ١) لَيْلَةَ الْحَيَّةِ، قَالَ: فَقُلْنَا لَهُ: وَمَا لَيْلَةُ الْحَيَّةِ يَا أَبَا عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ؟ قَالَ: بَيْنَمَا نَحْنُ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِحِرَاءٍ لَيْلًا، خَرَجَتْ عَلَيْنَا حَيَّةٌ مِنَ الْجَبَلِ، فَأَمَرَنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِقَتْلِهَا، فَطَلَبْنَاهَا، فَأَعْجَزَتْنَا، فَقَالَ: «دَعُوهَا عَنْكُمْ، فَقَدْ وَقَاهَا اللَّهُ شَرَّكُمْ، كَمَا وَقَاكُمْ شَرَّهَا». 4379. It was narrated from 'Abdullah ibn Mas'ood that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) sd "There is no Prophet whom Allah sent to any nation before me, but he had disciples and companions from among his nation who followed his path and obeyed his commands. Then after them came generations who said what they did not do and did what they were not commanded to do."

4380. 'Ubaydullah ibn 'Abdullah ibn 'Utbah narrated that 'Abdullah ibn Mas'ood said: Whilst we were with the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), close to eighty men of Quraysh, among whom there was no one but a Qurashi, and by Allah I have never seen any faces of men more handsome than their faces on that day - they mentioned women and spoke about them, and he spoke with them, until I wished he would fall silent [out of compassion, because he would have tired himself]. Then I came close to him and he recited the shahaadah, then he said: "O Quraysh, you are in charge of this matter, so long as you do not 4381. It was narrated that 'Abdullah ibn Mas'ood said: Whilst we were with the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) in Makkah, and he was with a group of his companions, he said: "Let one of you come with me, and let no one come with me but a man in whose heart is not even an atom's weight of dishonesty." So I got up to go with him, and I took a vessel with me, not thinking that it contained anything but water. I set out with the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) until, when we were in the upper part of Makkah, I saw some shadows gathered together. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) drew a line for me then he said: "Stay here until I come to you." So I stayed and the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) went to them and I saw them crowding around him. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) spoke with them all night long, then he came to me at dawn and he said to me: "Are you still here, O Ibn Mas'ood?" I said: O Messenger of Allah, did you not tell me, Stay here until I come to you? Then he said to me: "Do you have any water for wudoo'?" I said: Yes. Then I opened the vessel and saw that it was nabeedh (a drink made by soaking dates in water). I said to him: O Messenger of Allah, by Allah when I picked up the vessel I did not think that it contained anything but water, but it turned out to be nabeedh. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: "Good dates and pure water." Then he did wudoo' with it, and when he stood up to pray, two of them came to him and said to him: O Messenger of Allah, we would like you to lead us in our prayer. So the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) made them stand in a row behind him, then he led us in prayer. When he finished I said to him: Who are these, O Messenger of Allah? He said: "These are the jinn of Naseebeen; they came to me concerning a dispute about some of their affairs. And they asked me for provision, so I granted them provision." I said to him: O Messenger of Allah, do you have anything that you could grant to them as provision? He said: "I granted them excrement; whatever they find of dung they will find it like barley, and whatever they find of bones, they will find them with meat on them." And at that time the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) forbade cleaning oneself (after relieving oneself) with dung or bones.

4382. It was narrated that 'Abdullah ibn Mas'ood said: The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) taught me the tashahhud in the middle of the prayer and at the end of it. [The narrator said:] We memorized it from 'Abdullah when he told us that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) taught it to him. He said: He used to say, when he sat on his left hip in the middle of the prayer and at the end: "All compliments, prayers and pure words are due to Allah. Peace be upon you, O Prophet, and the mercy of Allah and His blessings. Peace be upon us, and upon the righteous slaves of Allah. I bear witness that there is no god but Allah, and I bear witness that Muhammad is His slave and Messenger." Then if it was in the middle of the prayer, he would get up when he finished the tashahhud, and if it was the end of the prayer, he would offer supplication (du'aa') after the prayer as Allah willed he should, then he would say the tasleem.

4385. Muhammad ibn Ka'b al-Qurazi narrated from one who told him, that he said: Whilst we were in the mosque of Kufah one day, when 'Ammaar ibn Yaasir was the governor of Kufah for 'Umar ibn al-Khattaab (رضي الله عنه), and 'Abdullah ibn Mas'ood was in charge of the bayt al-maal, 'Abdullah ibn Mas'ood looked at the shade and saw that it was the length of a sandal strap. He said: If this companion of yours ('Ammaar) is going to pray according to the Sunnah of your Prophet, he will come out now. By Allah, no sooner had 'Abdullah ibn Mas'ood finished speaking, but 'Ammaar ibn Yaasir came out and said: (Time for) prayer.

4386. 'Abd ar-Rahmaan ibn al-Aswad ibn Yazeed an-Nakha'i narrated that his father said: My paternal uncle 'Alqamah and I entered upon 'Abdullah ibn Mas'ood in the middle of the day, and he recited the iqaamah for Zuhr in order to pray. We stood behind him and he took hold of my hand and my uncle's hand, and he made one of us stand to his right and the other to his left, then he stood in front of us and we formed one row behind him. Then he said: This is what the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) used to do if they were three. Then he led us in prayer, and when he bowed he put his hands together and rested his forearms on his thighs, placing his hands between his knees. When he had said the salaam, he turned to us and said: There will be rulers who delay the prayer from its proper time. If they do that, do not wait for them to do it, and make your prayer with them naafil.

4399. Abu Ishaaq said: I heard 'Abd ar-Rahmaan ibn Yazeed say: 'Abdullah ibn Mas'ood performed Hajj and 'Alqamah told me to stay close to him, so I stayed with him - and he narrated the hadeeth. When dawn broke, he said: Give the iqaamah (call immediately preceding the prayer). I said: O Abu 'Abd ar-Rahmaan, this is a time at which I have never seen you pray. He said: The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) did not pray at this time except this prayer in this place on this day. 'Abdullah said: There are two prayers that I changed from their usual time: Maghrib prayer after the people come to Muzdalifah, and Fajr prayer as soon as dawn appears. He said: and I saw the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) do that.

When they entered upon the Negus they prostrated to him, then they hastened towards him from his right and from his left and said to him: Some of our cousins have come to your land; they have abandoned us and our religion. He said: Where are they? They said: They are in your land; send for them. So he sent for them and Ja'far said (to the other Muslims): I will be your spokesman today - so they followed him. He greeted (the Negus) but did not prostrate, and they said to him: Why don't you prostrate to the king? He said: We do not prostrate to anyone except Allah, may He be glorified and exalted. He said: Why is that? [Ja'far] said: Because Allah (ﷻ) has sent to us His Messenger, and he instructed us not to prostrate to anyone except Allah (ﷻ), and he instructed us to pray and to give zakaah. 'Amr ibn al-'Aas said: They differ with you concerning 'Eesa ibn Maryam. He said: What do you say concerning 'Eesa ibn Maryam and his mother? They said: We said as Allah (ﷻ) said: he is the Word of Allah and the Spirit created by Him that He bestowed upon the virgin whom no man has touched. I bear witness that he is the Messenger of Allah and he is the one whom we find in the Gospel; he is the Messenger who was foretold by 'Eesa ibn Maryam. Stay wherever you want for by Allah, were it not that I am preoccupied with the responsibilities of kingship, I would go to him so that I might carry his shoes and bring him water for his ablutions. Then he ordered that the gifts of the others be returned to them. Then 'Abdullah ibn Mas'ood hastened (back to the Hijaz) and was among those who were present at Badr; and he said that the Prophet (ﷺ) prayed for forgiveness for him (the Negus) when news of his death reached him.

been entrusted (with these sheep, which do not belong to me); I cannot give you anything to drink. The Prophet (ﷺ) said "Is there a sheep that has not been impregnated by the ram?" I said: Yes. I brought a sheep and the Prophet (ﷺ) caught it and wiped its udder, and offered supplication (du'aa'), and the udder filled. Then Abu Bakr brought him a hollowed out stone and he milked it into it. He drank and Abu Bakr drank, then I drank, then he said to the udder: "Dry up," and it did. Then I came to him after that and said: Teach me some of these words. He patted me on the head and said: "You are a little boy and you will learn (later)." And I learned from his lips seventy soorahs without anyone (being with me at the time) to distract me.

If I had to swear on that day, I would have hoped that my oath would stand if I were to swear that there was no one among us who wanted worldly gain, until Allah (ﷻ) revealed the words: "Among you are some that desire this world and some that desire the Hereafter. Then He made you flee from them (your enemy), that He might test you" [Aal 'Imraan 3:152]. When the companions of the Prophet (ﷺ) disobeyed orders and went against what they had been commanded to do, the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) was left alone with nine people, seven of the Ansaar and two men from Quraysh, and he was the tenth. When the enemy wore him down, he said: "May Allah have mercy on a man who pushes them back from us." One of the Ansaari men got up and fought for a while until he was killed. Then when they wore him down again, he said: "May Allah have mercy on a man who pushes them back from us," and he kept saying that until all seven had been killed. Then the Prophet (ﷺ) said to his two companions (who were left): "We have not been fair to our companions." Then Abu Sufyaan came and said: Exalted be Hubal. 4441. It was narrated that 'Abdullah said: Umm Habeebah said: O Allah, let me have the joy of the company of my husband the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) and my father Abu Sufyaan, and my brother Mu'aawiyah (all my life). The Prophet (ﷺ) said : "You have asked Allah about lifespans that have already been determined, provisions that have already been allotted and days that have already been counted. Allah will never do anything before its due time or delay it beyond its due time. If you had asked Allah to grant you refuge from punishment in the Fire and punishment in the grave, that would have been better for you." A man said: O Messenger of Allah, are pigs and monkeys from what was transformed? The Prophet (ﷺ) said: "Allah (ﷻ) never transformed a people, or doomed a people, then gave them offspring or descendents. Monkeys and pigs existed before that."

4498. It was narrated from Ibn 'Umar that the Jews brought to the Prophet (ﷺ) a man and a woman from among them who has committed zina. He said: "What do you find in your Book?" They said: We blacken their faces and they will be disgraced. He said: "You are lying; in it is [mentioned] stoning. Bring the Torah and recite it if you are telling the truth." So they brought the Torah and they brought a one-eyed reciter who was called Ibn Sooriya, and he recited it until, when he reached some part of it, he placed his hand over it. It was said: Lift your hand. So he lifted his hand and there it (the verse of stoning) appeared. He, or they, said: O Muhammad, in it is [mentioned] stoning but we used to conceal it (and avoid talking about it) amongst ourselves. Then the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) ordered that they be stoned. He [Ibn 'Umar] said: And I saw him (the man) trying to shield her from the stones with his body.

'Umar asked the Prophet (ﷺ) (about that) and he instructed him to take her back, then wait until she had gone through another menstrual cycle, then to wait until she became pure, then to divorce her before being intimate with her. He said: "That is the 'iddah (prescribed period) that Allah (ﷻ) has enjoined for the divorce of women." If Ibn 'Umar was asked about a man who divorced his wife when she was menstruating, he would say: As for me, I divorced her once or twice, then the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) instructed him to take her back, then wait until she had gone through another menstrual cycle, then to wait until she became pure, then to divorce her before having been intimate with her. 4584. Sadaqah heard Ibn 'Umar say, i.e., narrating from the Prophet (ﷺ) "The people of Najd should enter ihram from Qarn, the people of Syria from al-Juhfah and the people of Yemen from Yalamlam." And he heard the Prophet (ﷺ) say: "And miqaat of the people of Madinah is Dhu'l-Hulayfah." They said to him: From where should the people of Iraq (enter ihram)? Ibn 'Umar said: There was no (miqaat for them) at that time.

4608. It was narrated that Ibn 'Umar said: Umar was given a share of land in Khaybar, and he came to the Prophet (ﷺ) to consult him about it. He said: I have been given a share of land at Khaybar and I have never been given any wealth that is more precious to me than it. What do you command me to do with it? He said: "If you wish, you can 'freeze' it and give it in charity." So 'Umar gave it in charity and stipulated that it was not to be sold, given as a gift or inherited, and he gave it (its yield) in charity to the poor and relatives, for the manumission of slaves, for (those striving in jihad) for the sake of Allah and for wayfarers and guests; there was no sin on the one appointed to look after it if he ate from it on a reasonable basis, and fed a friend without storing anything for the future.

[1] Shighaar (quid pro quo marriage) is when one man agrees to give his daughter or female relative under his care in marriage to another man, who in turn gives his daughter or female relative in marriage to the first man, with no mahrs being given to the women concerned.

[The narrator] said: I said to Naafi': What is shighaar? He said: It is when a man gives his daughter in marriage to another man and marries the latter's daughter, or a man gives his sister in marriage to another man and marries the latter's sister, with no dowry given.

4693. It was narrated that Sa'eed ibn Jubayr said: I was asked about the couple who engage in li'aan, during the governorship of Ibn az-Zubayr - should they be separated? I did not know what to say, so I got up from where I was sitting and went to the house of Ibn 'Umar. I said: O Abu 'Abd ar-Rahmaan, should a couple who engage in li'aan be separated? He said: Subhaan-Allah, the first one to ask about this was So and so the son of So and so. He said: O Messenger of Allah, what do you think, if a man finds his wife committing an immoral action, if he speaks, he will be speaking of a very serious matter, and if he keeps quiet, he will be keeping quiet about a very serious matter. He remained silent and did not answer him. Then after that he came to him and said: I am suffering with the problem I asked you about. Then Allah revealed these verses in Soorat al-Noor: "And for those who accuse their wives... that the Wrath of Allah be upon her if he (her husband) speaks the truth" [al-Noor 24:6-9]. He started with the

He said: "al-Kifl was one of the Children of Israel who would not refrain from any sin that he knew he could do. A woman came to him and he gave her sixty dinars to let him have intercourse with her. When he was in a position with her as a man is with his wife, she started shaking and crying. He said: Why are you crying? Did I force you? She said: No, but this is something I have never done before and the only thing that made me do it is poverty. He said: Are you doing this when you have never done it before? Then he left her alone and said: Go, and the money is yours to keep. Then he said: By Allah, al-Kifl will never disobey Allah again. Then he died that night, and in the morning (it was found) written on his door: Verily Allah, may He be glorified and exalted, has forgiven al-Kifl."

4872. It was narrated that Abu Ja'far ibn Muhammad ibn 'Ali said: Whilst 'Ubayd ibn 'Umayr was telling a story, and 'Abdullah ibn 'Umar was with him, 'Ubayd ibn 'Umayr said: The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: "The likeness of the hypocrite is that of a sheep that is between two sheep-pens. If it goes to one group, they will push it away, and if it goes to the other group, they will push it away." Ibn 'Umar said: That is not how the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said it. Rather the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: "Like a sheep between two flocks." The old man got angry and when 'Abdullah saw that, he said: If I had not heard it, I would not have corrected you.

enemy before attacking them? And is it permissible for a man to charge (at the enemy) on his own and without the permission of his commander when he is part of a brigade? He wrote back to him and said: Ibn 'Umar's sons are going out on campaign, and he is giving mounts (for the troops). And he used to say: The best deed after prayer is jihad for the sake of Allah, may He be exalted. Nothing prevented Ibn 'Umar from going out on campaign except the fact that he was taking care of the matters that 'Umar had left behind, looking after young children and earning a living by looking after a lot of livestock. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) raided Banu'l-Mustaliq and caught them unawares when they were giving water to their cattle. He killed their warriors and took their women and children captive, and Juwayriyah bint al-Haarith fell to his lot. He [Naafi'] said: Ibn 'Umar told me this hadeeth, and he was a member of that army. They only used to offer options to the enemy in the early days of Islam. And a fighter should not charge against the enemy without the permission of his commander.

[1] 'Umra and ruqba are two types of gift-giving. In the case of 'umra, the gift remains the property of the recipient, whether he dies before or after the giver. When the recipient dies, the gift goes back to the giver or his heirs. In the case of ruqba, the gift goes back to the giver only if the recipient dies before him; if the giver dies first, then the gift belongs to the recipient.

4917. It was narrated from Ibn 'Umar that the Prophet (ﷺ) said: "Whoever drinks khamr in this world, his prayer will not be accepted for forty nights, but if he repents, Allah will accept his repentance. Then if he does it again, Allah will (not accept his prayer for forty nights) again, but if he repents, Allah will accept his repentance. Then if he does it again, it becomes inevitable that Allah will give him to drink from the river of al-khabaal." It was said: What is the river of al-khabaal? He said: "The pus of the people of Hell"

5009. Sa'eed ibn Jubayr said: I asked Ibn 'Umar: O Abu 'Abd ar-Rahmaan, should a couple who engage in li'aan be separated? He said: Subhaan-Allah, yes. The first one to ask about this was So and so. He said: O Messenger of Allah, what do you think, if one of us sees his wife committing an immoral action, what should he do? If he keeps quiet, he will be keeping quiet about a serious matter, and if he speaks, he will be speaking of an equally serious matter. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) remained silent and did not answer him. Then the man left and went about his business. After that he came to the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) and said: I have been afflicted with what I asked you about. Then Allah revealed these verses in Soorat al-Noor: "And for those who accuse their wives..." [al-Noor 24:6-9], to the end of the passage. He recited them to him, and exhorted and admonished him, and reminded

I said: The two (Sunnah) rak'ahs of Fajr: should I make the recitation in them long? He said: The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) used to pray at night, two (rak'ahs) by two. He said: Rather I asked you about the two rak'ahs of Fajr! I said: You are dense! Did you not see me start to narrate the hadeeth? (So let me finish it.) The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) used to pray at night, two (rak'ahs) by two, then when he feared that dawn was about to break, he would pray Witr with one rak'ah.

٥٠٩٦- حَدَّثَنَا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ حَبِيبِ بْنِ الشَّهِيدِ، حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي عَنْ أَنَسِ ابْنِ سِيرِينَ قَالَ: قُلْتُ لِعَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ: أَقْرَأُ خَلْفَ الْإِمَامِ؟ قَالَ: تُجْزِئُكَ قِرَاءَةُ الْإِمَامِ. قُلْتُ: رَكْعَتَيِ الْفَجْرِ، أُطِيلُ فِيهِمَا الْقِرَاءَةَ؟ قَالَ: كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يُصَلِّي صَلَاةَ اللَّيْلِ مَثْنَى مَثْنَى، قَالَ: قُلْتُ: إِنَّمَا سَأَلْتُكَ عَنْ رَكْعَتَيِ الْفَجْرِ! قَالَ: إِنَّكَ لَضَخْمٌ! أَلَسْتَ تَرَانِي أَبْتَدِئُ الْحَدِيثَ: كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يُصَلِّي صَلَاةَ اللَّيْلِ مَثْنَى مَثْنَى، فَإِذَا خَشِيَ الصُّبْحَ أَوْتَرَ بِرَكْعَةٍ، ثُمَّ يَضَعُ رَأْسَهُ، فَإِنْ شِئْتَ قُلْتَ: نَامَ، وَإِنْ شِئْتَ قُلْتَ: لَمْ يَنَمْ، ثُمَّ يَقُومُ إِلَيْهِمَا وَالْأَذَانُ فِي أُذُنَيْهِ، فَأَيُّ طُولٍ يَكُونُ؟ ثُمَّ قُلْتُ: رَجُلٌ

Then he would lie down, and if you wished, you might say that he slept, or if you wished, you might say that he did not sleep. Then he would get up to pray (the two rak‘ahs of Fajr, after having prayed the Sunnah) with the adhaan still ringing in his ears. So what kind of lengthy (Sunnah) prayer can this be? I said: A man bequeathed some money for the sake of Allah; can some of it to be spent on Hajj? He said: If you do that, it will be for the sake of Allah. I said: A man missed a rak‘ah with the imam, then the imam said the salaam. Can he get up to make it up before the imam gets up? He said: When the imam says the salaam, he has finished the prayer. I said: Can a creditor take from the debtor (who has failed to pay his debt) wealth that is greater than the debt owed? He said: For every betrayer a banner will be raised on the Day of Resurrection by his backside, commensurate with the level of his betrayal.

but he fainted. The people were gathered in the mosque, waiting for the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) to pray 'Isha'. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) sent word to Abu Bakr, telling him to lead the people in prayer. But Abu Bakr was a tender-hearted man, so he said: O 'Umar, lead the people in prayer. 'Umar said: You are more entitled to do that. So Abu Bakr led them in prayer during those days. Then the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) felt a little better, so he came out between two men - one of whom was al-'Abbaas - to pray Zuhr. When Abu Bakr saw him, he started to step back, but the Prophet (ﷺ) gestured to him not to step back. He told (the two men) to seat him beside (Abu Bakr). Abu Bakr prayed standing and the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) prayed sitting.

I entered upon Ibn 'Abbaas and said to him: Shall I not tell you what 'Aa'ishah told me about the illness of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ)? He said: Go ahead. So I told him what she had said, and he did not object to any part of it, except that he said: Did she tell you the name of the one who was with al-'Abbaas? I said: No. He said: That was 'Ali (may Allah have mercy on him).

5327. It was narrated that Muslim ibn Yannaaq said: I was sitting with 'Abdullah ibn 'Umar in the gathering of Banu 'Abdullah, when a young man of Quraysh came past, letting his izaar drag. 'Abdullah ibn 'Umar called him and said: Where are you from? He said: From Banu Bakr. He said: Do you want Allah (ﷻ) to look at you on the Day of Resurrection? He said: Yes. He said: Pull up your izaar, for I heard - and he pointed to his ears - Abu'l-Qaasim (ﷺ) say: "Whoever lets his garment drag with no intention but pride, Allah will not look at him on the Day of Resurrection."

[1] Betting: some scholars say that betting is only permitted on horse and camel races and the like, and archery competitions (skills that were important in preparation for jihad). What is meant is a reward given to the winner, whether it came from one or more of the competitors or from a third party; the prize could only be won by one of the participants. Modern forms of betting, in which spectators make wagers on who will win, with the one whose guess turns out to be correct taking the prize, is emphatically forbidden in Islam.

5421. It was narrated from 'Ali ibn 'Abd ar-Rahmaan al-Mu'aawi that a man prayed beside Ibn 'Umar, and he started playing with the pebbles. He said: Do not play with the pebbles, for that is from the Shaytaan; rather do what the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) used to do. And he did something like this; Wuhayb showed us and 'Affaan described it to us: He placed his left hand, with the fingers outspread, on his left knee, and his placed his right hand on his right knee, clenching the fingers and pointing with his index finger.

[1] 'Umra and ruqba were two types of gift-giving that were known during the Jaahiliyyah. In the case of 'umra, the gift remained the property of the recipient, whether he died before or after the giver. When the recipient died, the gift went back to the giver or his heirs. In the case of ruqba, the gift went back to the giver only if the recipient died before him; if the giver died first, then the gift belonged to the recipient.

5509. It was narrated that Bakr said: I said to 'Abdullah ibn 'Umar: Anas told me that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) entered ihram for 'Umrah and Hajj. Ibn 'Umar said: May Allah have mercy on Anas; he is mistaken. Did we go out with the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) except for the purpose of Hajj? When we got there, he instructed us to change it to 'Umrah, except those who had sacrificial animals with them. I told Anas about that and he got angry and said: You are only treating us like little boys!

5533. It was narrated that Jabalah ibn Suhaym said: Ibn al-Zubayr used to provide us with dates, as the people had been stricken with hardship at that time. We were eating and Ibn 'Umar passed by us when we were eating and said: Do not eat two together, for the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) forbade eating two together, unless a man asks his brother for permission.

Shu'bah said: I think that these words about asking permission are the words of Ibn ’Umar.

Whoever does more than that, Allah will give him more, and whoever is silent, Allah will forgive him. Shall I not tell you of five things that I heard from the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ)? They said: Yes. He said: "The one whose intercession prevented one of the hudood punishments ordained by Allah (from being carried out), has opposed the command of Allah. Whoever disputes on the basis of falsehood knowingly will remain subject to the wrath of Allah until he gives it up. Whoever says concerning the believing man or woman something that is not true, Allah will detain him in the mud of the juice of the people of Hell. Whoever dies owing a debt, some of his hasanaat will be taken and given to the creditor; there will be no dinars and dirhams there. And two rak'ahs (before) Fajr, always offer them, for they are virtuous deeds."

5631. Saalim ibn 'Abdullah narrated that he heard Ibn 'Umar narrate from the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) that he met Zayd ibn 'Amr ibn Nufayl in the lower part of Baldah (a place near Makkah), and that was before the revelation had come down to the Messenger of Allah. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) offered him some food in which there was meat. He refused to eat it and said: I do not eat that which you slaughter on your altars and I do not eat that on which the name of Allah was not mentioned.[1]

[1] According to Fath al-Baari (a commentary on Saheeh al-Bukhari), there is another version of this hadeeth which says that this food was offered to the Prophet (sa). In order to reconcile between the two reports, Ibn al-Muneer suggested that there were some people who offered food to the Prophet (sa), who in turn offered it to Zayd ibn 'Amr. So Zayds comment was addressed to the people who had prepared and served the food in the first place.

5632. It was narrated from 'Abdullah ibn 'Umar from the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) that someone came to him when he stopped in the place where he halted in Dhu'l-Hulayfah and it was said to him: You are on blessed stony ground (bat-ha').

5653. It was narrated from 'Abdullah ibn Dinar that a Bedouin passed by Ibn 'Umar when they were on the way to Hajj. Ibn 'Umar said to him: Aren't you So and so, the son of So and so? He said: Yes. He took a donkey that he would ride for a change when he got bored of riding his camel, and a piece of cloth that he used to wrap around his head, and gave them to the Bedouin. When he left, some of us said: You took your donkey that you would ride for a change and your cloth that you used to wrap around your head, and gave them to this Bedouin! Rather he would have been content with a dirham! He said: I heard the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) say: "The best act of righteousness is for a man to uphold ties with his father's friends after (his father) dies."

[1] Jalab refers to when, instead of going to where people's wealth is, the zakaah collector halts somewhere and sends someone else to bring the people's zakaah. Zakaah should be taken from where the wealth (in this case livestock) is kept.

[2] Janab refers to when the owner of wealth keeps it away from where it is usually kept in order to make it harder for the zakaah collector to find it.

[3] Shighaar (quid pro quo marriage) is when one man agrees to give his daughter or female relative under his care in marriage to another man, who in turn gives his daughter or female relative in marriage to the first man, with no mahrs being given to the women concerned.

5690. It was narrated that Sa'eed ibn Jubayr said: Ibn 'Umar came out to us when we were hoping that he would say something to us that we would like. Then a man hastened towards him and said: O Abu 'Abd ar-Rahmaan, what do you say about fighting when there is fitnah (turmoil between Muslims)? For Allah (ﷻ) says: "And fight them until there is no more Fitnah" [al-Baqarah 2:193]. He said: Woe to you! do you know what fitnah is? The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) only used to fight the mushrikeen, and joining their religion was fitnah; he was not like you, fighting one another for power!

And indeed one of the greatest of betrayals - apart from associating anything with Allah (ﷻ) - is for a man to swear allegiance to another in accordance with the teachings of Allah and His Messenger, then to break that oath of allegiance. No one among you should revoke his allegiance to Yazeed, and no one among you should even think of doing so, because that could be the end (of ties) between me and him.

pressure and retreated to where the Prophet (ﷺ) was, he would not be to blame, because he would come under the category mentioned in al-Anfaal 8:16 ("unless it be a stratagem of war, or to retreat to a troop (of his own)" - i.e., a tactical retreat), and would not be regarded as fleeing the battlefield. The word translated here as rearguard originally refers to a group of soldiers that stood behind the army in case the army encountered difficulties or needed to retreat, in which case they could go to this group.

5748. It was narrated from Ibn 'Umar that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) used to give things to 'Umar, and 'Umar would say to him: O Messenger of Allah, give it to one who is more in need of it than me. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said to him: "Take it and keep it or give it in charity. Whatever comes to you of this wealth when you are not hoping for it or asking for it, take it, otherwise do not hanker after it."

Saalim said: Because of that, Ibn 'Umar did not ask anyone for anything, and he did not refuse anything that was given to him.

5772. 'Uthmaan ibn 'Abdullah ibn Mawhab said: A man came from Egypt to perform Hajj to the House (the Ka'bah). He saw some people sitting and said: Who are these people? They said: Quraysh. He said: Who is the old man among them? They said: 'Abdullah ibn 'Umar. He said: O Ibn 'Umar, I am going to ask you about something, or I urge you (to tell us the truth), or I adjure you by the sanctity of this House, do you know that 'Uthmaan fled on the day of Uhud? He said: Yes. He said: Do you know that he was absent from Badr and was not present? He said: Yes. He said: Do you know that he was absent from Bay'at ar-Radwaan? He said: Yes. The Egyptian said: Allahu akbar. Ibn 'Umar said: Come and I will explain to you what you asked me about. As for his fleeing on the day of Uhud, I bear witness that Allah has pardoned him and forgiven him. As for his being absent from Badr, he was married to the daughter of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) and she had fallen sick, so the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said to him: "You will have the reward of a man who was present at Badr 5886. It was narrated that 'Abdullah ibn 'Umar said: There was the stump of a palm tree in the mosque on which the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) used to lean back on Fridays, or if something happened and he needed to address the people. They said: O Messenger of Allah, shall we not make for you something to stand on? He said: "There is nothing wrong with you doing that." So they made him a minbar with three steps. He sat on it and the palm tree trunk made a sound like the lowing of a cow, grieving for the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) He hugged it and patted it until it calmed down.

6028. 'Abdullah ibn 'Umar said: The Prophet (ﷺ) prayed 'Isha' one night at the end of his life, then when he had said the salaam he stood up and said: "Have you seen this night of yours? One hundred years from now, there will no one left who is on the face of the earth today." 'Abdullah said: The people did not understand these words of the Prophet (ﷺ) and they said different things about these one hundred years. But all the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said was: "One hundred years from now, there will no one left who is on the face of the earth today" meaning that that generation would come to an end.

6029. 'Abdullah ibn 'Umar said: I heard the Prophet (ﷺ) say, when he was standing on the minbar: "Verily your lifespan compared to that of the nations who came before you is like the time from 'Asr prayer until sunset. The people of the Torah were given the Torah and they acted in accordance with it, until when it was midday they were unable to carry on, so they were each given one qiraat. The people of the Gospel were given the Gospel and they acted in accordance with it until 'Asr prayer; then they were unable to carry on, so they were each given one qiraat. Then you were given the Qur'an, and you acted in accordance with it until sunset, then you were each given two qiraats. The people of the Torah and the Gospel said: Our Lord, they did the least work but receive the greatest reward. He said: Have I wronged you with regard to your reward? They said: No. Then He said: That is My bounty that I grant to whomever I will."
